

IMM Facilitator

Job Type: Contract/Freelance

Job Summary: We are a not-for-profit organisation seeking experienced and talented music freelancers to join our Greater Manchester team. As a music freelancer, you will be responsible for delivering high-quality music lessons and workshops to individuals and groups of all ages as part of our community outreach program. As our projects are across Greater Manchester, you will need your own mode of transport.

Key Responsibilities:

- Plan and deliver engaging and innovative Intergenerational workshops that align with our organisation's goals and objectives.
- Work collaboratively with other freelancers, volunteers, and staff to ensure that all activities are organised, efficient, and effective.
- Provide feedback, evaluation and support to management
- Participate in freelance meetings and training sessions to ensure ongoing professional development.
- Adhere to our organisation's policies and procedures at all times, including health and safety protocols.

Requirements:

- A minimum of 1 year experience working within the field of music, health and wellbeing.
- A degree in music or a related field, or equivalent experience and qualifications.
- Proven ability to plan, organise, and deliver high-quality music workshops and that engage and inspire participants.
- Excellent communication and organisational skills.
- The ability to work collaboratively with others and to adapt to changing circumstances and priorities.
- Own mode of transport.
- Valid enhanced DBS.

We will offer:

- Training and CPD to support development of skills and intergenerational understanding
- Opportunities to develop projects
- Support and supervision if required

If you meet the requirements for this position and are passionate about using music and creativity to make a positive impact in the community, we encourage you to apply for this exciting opportunity.
